

might be over-the-hill in porn years, but this versatile daddy has only just begun to fuck.

CUMMY BEARS

REVIEW AND INTERVIEW BY COLT SPENCER

SCENE | CRISTIAN TORRENT AND OLIVER SITE | BUTCHDIXON.COM

ButchDixon.com is a European-based company that focuses exclusively on mature men who like to get down and dirty. Featuring amateur bear sex as well as established performers like Ted Colunga and Edu Boxer, the website is a haven for those who like their men on the burlier, butcher side, delivering exclusive footage of dirty older pigs fucking.

One of those scenes is between Oliver, a cigar-smoking leatherdaddy with a hefty, uncut monster of a cock, and Cristian Torrent, a smaller but no less aggressive muscleman who knows how to take a good pounding. Their scene is set in a playroom, which is appropriate since they so obviously get off on playing with each other. Oliver walks in to find Cristian rubbing himself through his leather jock. After a bit of play with the cigar, the two men start kissing and rubbing each other's bodies as their passion escalates.

Before long, Cristian is fishing Oliver's monster out of his leather pants and chewing on the foreskin in between suck sessions. Oliver returns the favor, then works over Cristian's hole with an enormous black dildo. Cristian greedily accepts the intrusion, so his hole is nice and ready for Oliver's cock. Oliver sticks it in and hammers away. The two men finish off by jerking themselves to orgasm, with Cristian hungrily eating Oliver's come before letting it leak out of his mouth.

All in all, the scene is a rather standard leather scenario with above-average chemistry between the two men. It's obvious that Cristian and Oliver get along (see our interview with Cristian at right for the backstory), and their passion for one another carries the scene along to its gooey, drippy climax.

Why such a late start in the porn biz?

I'd always been interested in porn, but I decided not to go for it until my parents passed. I was organizing private sex parties in my home and they grew in size and popularity, and we got interviewed by the local press. Then somebody said, "Why don't we film it?" And that sort of sparked the idea again.

So far you've only performed in Europe.

American porn films seem to be all about body, body, body. And I like working with the smaller niche markets.

You obviously enjoy your work. Have you always been into fetish play?

Yeah. At first it was shocking to me that people would do these things to each other. [Laughs] But once I realized that the people who do it think it through and are very controlled, I got involved. I've been a pig ever since.

What's your dirtiest deed?

Well, gang bangs are pretty seedy. I did a gang bang recently for Dark Alley. It was 15 guys just pissing and fucking each other.

Your Web scene with Oliver is quite hot.

That was a long day, because we enjoyed the sex so much, we just kept going. [Laughs] We'd met at a party in London where he literally came up to me and took me from behind. I didn't even know who it was, but he had a massive cock. After it was over I turned around and said, "I really enjoyed that." When it turned out that he was my scene partner for ButchDixon.com, I thought, This is going to be sizzling. We just hammered each other. I fucked him as well, but you don't get to see that in the online video. I bumped into him the other night and I said, "Ready for match two?" [Laughs]

You've done several piss videos. What's it take to become water-sports royalty?

Being able to piss on cue. For the Dark Alley film I'd been drinking loads of Coke Zero, and I took the longest piss ever. I was pissing literally up to the ceiling. But I don't think I'm a piss king yet. I think I'm working my way up to piss prince.

Any final advice for aspiring kinksters?

Never fist someone you don't know. ■
